

COMING TOGETHER IS WHAT MAKES THINGS HAPPEN!!

Greetings!

In case you have not heard, something really important is taking place in January in Dallas Texas...the first National PKU Alliance conference. It promises to be excellent in every way. Leading experts on every aspect of PKU will be there to share knowledge, answer questions and stimulate action. Parents, grandparents, researchers, advocates, clinicians and specialty food vendors will gather to educate, share ideas and network. We will all be at the same place at the same time to support each other in something that is so important to each of us. In addition, we plan to have lots of fun!!

The conference is only two months away! It promises to bring this important community together through knowledge, idea sharing and mutual encouragement. The more of us who come together, the stronger the conference will be. Many of you are new to PKU and will find the information invaluable and comforting. Those who have been involved for a long time can be a wonderful source of ideas and inspiration. We need each other. For a full conference agenda go to www.npkua.org and select High Hopes Inaugural Conference, it will be under “Enjoy meeting distinguished guests...”

It's easy to sign up. And, if you sign up before December 1st you will be eligible to receive a $500 gift card from Amazon. Don't miss out on this opportunity! Just go to the NPKUA website: www.npkua.org and select HIGH HOPES INAUGURAL CONFERENCE and follow the sign-up directions. In any case, we hope to see you there! If you have any questions about the conference please ask, email Tara Ketterman at: tara.ketterman@npkua.org.

With High Hopes for a great conference for all of us,

NPKUA
